

The Business Life

A successful business is more than providing a service or product. You must be able to sell your idea to lenders, provide excellent service to clients and maintain a strong rapport with your staff that includes mutual respect and life-long learning.

Duncan will discuss:

- Developing your business
- Making the sale
- Marketing your company
- Managing operations
- Building your team